

A parent demonstrates a skill on a team prop.	A parent takes a team member to a power tool demonstration at a local hardware store for hands-on training and experience.
The Team Manager or resource person teaches a basic skill	The Team Manager tells team members where to place props in the Launch Area at a Tournament.
The Team Manager encourages the team to develop a floor plan for where props go, not only in the Performance Area, but also in the Launch Area.	A parent asks, “Why haven’t you tried ‘so and so’?” to a team member about the team’s solution.
The Team Manager asks “leading” questions of the team members toward a predetermined solution.	The Team Manager uses CPS Tools and questions to generate or focus that help round out the solution.
The Team Manager teaches Instant Challenge techniques.	A parent helps on a student’s DI project at home.
A resource person instructs the team on engineering techniques to specifically improve its unique solution.	During the Conception and Design Phase, the Team Manager writes down the team’s ideas and/or instructions in the team’s words.
The Team Manager helps the team “warm up” for Instant Challenge at the Tournament.	A Team Manager helps finish a prop due to lack of time.
A dress rehearsal is held before mock “Appraisers” who give critical feedback to the team.	The Team Manager explains the Team Challenge to the team without specific solution hints.
A parent helps a team member with make-up at Tournament.	During the Construction Phase, the Team Manager plugs cords and/or electrical equipment into an outlet.
Parents help move the props up to the Prep Area and the Launch Site at the Tournament.	During the Tournament, the Team Manager prompts a “stuck” team member.

